Letter from Polk County

DALLAS Nov 2, 1867

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The Democrats had a meeting here to day to organize a club. When I entered the Court House, Uncle Dick May was in the chair, putting the question on the adoption of the Constitution which resulted, ayes, 3, noes, 0.

Mr Outhouse then moved that Mr May be elected President, ayes, 3 noes 1, so he was elected by a clear majority of two. Mr Thompson was elected Secretary by a vote of ayes 4 noes, 0.

Mr. Outhouse moved that Mr. Whitley be elected Vice President—ayes, 3, noes, 0 ahems 6 hawks, 9, so Mr. Whitley was declared elected but it is questionable whether the elections would be declared constitutional by the Courts, as it takes the "ayes" and "ahems" both together to equal the "hawks," and it is a nice question of construction, on which side the "ahems and "hawks" should be counted. Mr Hubbard moved that Mr Outhouse be elected Treasurer.

Mr Outhouse rose and said "Mr President—No—ahem—well—I—ahem—well—I—well—yes—I have no objection to be Treasurer! Ayes 2, noes 0 ahems, 7, hawks, 14. He was declared elected, so there seemed to arise another constitutional question on the subject of "Suffrage and Elections." Messrs Thompson, Stites and Hubbard were declared unanimously elected "The Executive Committee," by the following vote ayes 1, noes, 0.

Mr Waymire being called for, said "I tell you fellow citizens, I'm in the wrong street—but, not for office I don't mean, I'm too old for that. Though the Democratic star was well nigh obscured during the war, and was compelled to stick beneath the horizon, it is now, thank God, beginning to rise again! This Territory was the best managed Territory in the world when it was in the hands of the Democratic party, till it was delivered up into the hands of the present party in power. Then there was $40 000 in the treasury, now it is $40,000 in debt. And money gone for? To pay bounties to soldiers to fight Democrats! The Constitution says the Legislature shall not create a debt over $50 000, but they done it! I don't see how it can be possible for any man to violate the Constitution, when it especially prohibits it. And they spent the money to whip down Democrats! And the rich nabobs have the bonds in their pockets and don't pay any tax on them. What will you do with these bonds? You can't repudiate them. (Let's say, you can't.) Then I say, let the Legislature refuse to make an appropriation for them. Then let them sue, and we will see what the Supreme Court says about it. I'm out now overlooking the county for my interest and your interest. This vast debt was created to organize and arm the military to fight the Long Toms, when they had their muskets hid away in their barns, when, in fact they were as loyal then as they are to-day.

There are four parties in the field: the Democrats the Republicans, the Abolitionists and the Secessionists. And the Republicans, is a respectable party—as the old Whig party was—will join in with us, and we will whip them out, slick and clean. This is the most corrupt party that ever graced this "air suspended ball!" Now niggers have all the liberties Democrats have! Man is the greatest machine God ever made! Now don't he like church members, when one gets down to pray another gets up and sneaks out, but stick together and work together, and success is sure.

Dr Jeffries was called and said that, "the best way to make a point, if your point is wrong, is to appeal to prejudice. In ancient Greece no murderer was allowed to come into the temples, but they erected statues in the temples of those who had slain tyrants. They regarded the slayer of a tyrant as one of their gods—as worthy of a place among their deities." Dr. Hudson interrupted the speaker by asking "Doctor, are you trying to justify the assassination of President Lincoln?" Dr Jeffries—"It is proper to keep it before the people that it is right to slay tyrants." Here some angry words passed. I was soon called out, and did not note the speaking further.

Yours, OLD POLK

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.—Pennsylvania yesterday elected Judge Sharswood to the Supreme bench by a small majority. This is as we apprehended, though not as we wished. He is an able man, while his long experience as a Judge and his residence in Philadelphia gave him a decided advantage over his comparatively unknown competitor. This triumph is personal, and rather in spite of his thoroughly bad politics than because of them.

In the absence of full returns, we presume the Legislature to be Republican as usual. There being no President, Governor, nor Members of Congress to choose, the vote is comparatively light.

In Ohio, the Republican State ticket is elected, and the free suffrage amendment probably defeated. The vote is much lighter than last year, and the Republicans safer by the falling off, as usual.

So far as we have returns, the constitutional amendment runs steadily behind the Republican candidates, but not far behind. We estimate that 200,000 Republicans have voted for it; while perhaps 10 000 have voted against it. It is said to be unpopular but it is no more so than Protestant suffrage would be in a country predominantly and traditionally Romanist, or vice versa. Privileged classes always cling tenaciously to their monopoly of power. The vote just cast for manhood suffrage in Ohio is positively and relatively better than was ever before cast when whites alone voted in any great State of the Union.—N Y Tribune.

JOHNSON'S COURSE.—General Schenck, in a recent speech in Ohio, is reported as saying:

General Grant, in conversation with him a few days since, had expressed his great regret that others had not voted as he (Schenck) did, to keep Congress in session, when he replied that they would soon be back again. "It will be seventy eight days yet," says Grant. "Why, General" remarked Schenck, "do you count the days?" "Yes" said Grant, "I count them, and it will be just seventy eight days, and I would to God the time were nearer."

Senator Sherman of Ohio, whose conservative tendencies are well known, said in his speech at Cincinnati:

I perhaps am disposed to take a darker and more gloomy view of the President's position than some others. But I do say to you that there is good reason to believe that the President of the United States contemplates even more than he has yet done. If you pick up papers that support the President a policy which are they filled with? Threats against Congress as a rump Congress and about dispersing Congress. Who is Congress? Who are these senators and Representatives? Nothing but your agents, sent to do your will and to dispense them is to disperse you, to deprive them of the power to make laws is to overthrow your power to make laws, and let me tell the President that whenever he attempts to do that and to run a race against you or your agents he will run against live thunder.

SUICIDE.—A man named Charles Young, a native of Scotland, committed suicide on the 1st inst in Victoria by buckling one end of a strap around the post of his bedstead and fastening the other end around his neck, and then bearing down so as to stop respiration. The Colonist gives the following account of the deceased:

Young once occupied a prominent position in Australia, where he married but after a few years his wife left him and came to California whither he followed and after a long search discovered her one evening upon the stage in a Melodeon. The discovery so exasperated Young that he strang upon the stage and attempted to kill her. The woman escaped badly injured, and Young subsequently came to Victoria and remained for some time in the employ of Wilson & Murray. Latterly he drank very freely and only three days ago appeared in Court to prosecute a man whom he charged with having stolen a cask of brandy and a sack of flour from his cabin.

THE JOHNSON TACTICS.—The intention of the President's friends in giving out that General McClernand is likely to succeed Grant in the War Department is to put a slur on Grant. It will be remembered that when Grant was in command before Vicksburg, McClernand commanded a division under him, and was removed by the former for insubordination.

President and People

The following powerful article is from the Irish Republican, a new and very able journal published in Chicago. The Republican is one of the largest and handsomest papers published in the country and has already attained an immense circulation. It is almost the only Irish Republican paper issued, and its articles are characterized by unusual vigor, pungency and logic. The article above alluded to follows:

It is time for every local citizen of the United States to turn his attention to the state of affairs in Washington. Grave complications are only too likely to arise from the action of the present President, which may be productive of serious danger to the peace, if not to the unity, of this great country.

A conflict—as yet confined to peaceful weapons—rages between the people and Congress of the Republic, on the one hand and the supreme executive authority of the Government, on the other. The reconstruction and reorganization of those Southern states which were lately in an attitude of armed rebellion, constitutes the grand arena on which the combatants meet and do vigorous battle for their respective opinions and purposes.

The intelligent portion of the community have, by this time formed a pretty accurate estimate of the true nature and intrinsic value both of the men and of the principles involved in this momentous contest. And as the representatives of a large body of people, who have the deepest interest in the safety and prosperity of the American commonwealth, we deem it our incumbent duty to give a distinct and emphatic utterance to the judgment at which we have arrived, and the course of action which ought, under the circumstances, to be pursued.

If not to point of abstract principle, most undoubtedly in point of positive fact, the question of slavery lies at the root of the entire controversy. Those—and they constitute two-thirds of the intelligence and worth of the entire country—who first put legal limits to the monster evil by their votes, and afterwards, when forced to it by the onset of traitors, struck it prostrate by their swords, are resolved that at no time, in no place, and under no form, will it be permitted to live, much less to rule in this land of liberty. Such are the principles by which they have been guided. Such is the spirit by which they are still inspired. And such, too, the determination which they have steadily endeavored to reduce to practice. We speak of the people and the unbroken representatives: in fact, of the overwhelming majority of the loyal citizens of the Union. The reconstruction at which they aim is a radical one, which will cut the cancer's roots right out of the body politic, and leave all men, irrespective of color or creed, free and equal before a law based on strict justice and universal liberty.

Whether or not the person who at present occupies the Presidential chair has any principles which deserve the name appears to be exceedingly doubtful. If he has, they are evidently such an exceedingly easy fit, that he can turn them inside out, whenever it suits his purpose or his pleasure so to do. Born in a slave state, he originally belonged to that "poor white trash" who were not strong or successful enough to hold property in the sinews and bones and blood of their fellow man. And of the ambition by which these "sovereigns without subjects" were usually devoured he evidently had his full share. That ambition was—might we not venture to say, still is?—to have "a plantation well stocked" with human chattels. Hence, when, by means of bad whisky and brazen effrontery, he rose, like so many of his sort, from the tailor's bapboard to the Administration bench, and there to sit at a Cabinet desk in the Supreme Legislature, he was an advocate of "the peculiar institution." But when his tyrant compatriots arose in the madness of their iniquity and dashed themselves to destruction against the irresistible power of a giant Republic which was defended by the swords of a million of freemen, and by the strong right arm of the God of freedom and justice that no man was suffered enough to become the enemy of the system of which, up till then, he had been the supporter and abettor, and to adopt or rather to profess to adopt the principles of that great and ever growing party of liberty, which he clearly saw was hence forth destined to rule the country. This secured not only his safety but his high promotion. A convertion so signal, and services so zealous as were his, were rewarded by an elective office, second only to the highest which it is in the power of the American people to bestow.

We do not believe that he was, in any sense, privy to the plot which produced the assassination of President Lincoln. Nor will we believe it—for we should be just even to the most evil and unworthy—until evidence, much more conclusive than any that has yet been produced, is forthcoming on the subject. But that the leading spirits of the late accursed rebellion were cognizant of, and contributed to that hellish conspiracy, and that—once Lincoln was put out of the way—they calculated on this man as a fit tool to carry out their nefarious designs, is, in our opinion, an absolute certainty. And hundreds of thousands are to day able to testify that Andrew Johnson has not disappointed the amiable expectations of his Southern friends.

No sooner does he find himself firmly fixed in the seat of supreme authority—left vacant for him by a fearful crime—than he commences, openly and unblushingly, to bestow the highest offices of the country on men whose hands were still reeking with the blood of those who were cut down by the weapons of treason while fighting in the country's defense. Penalties or punishments for the nation's enemies, there are none. Pardon for the blackest criminals is all but universal. Governments are set up by the despotic authority of the President without legal authority of any kind, in the late Confederate States, and all power, civil and military, is placed in the hands of the country's open enemies. The helpless freedmen, lately nominally emancipated by the victorious armies of the Union are left unshielded to the tender mercies of their tyrants, who will very soon reduce them to a worse condition than they were in before. And, to crown all, the loyalists of the South, the men who were true to the Union and liberty, through all trials and sufferings, are now shot down in open day, their murderers are never brought to justice and the President of the United States becomes the apologist and defender of those whom he was bound to have brought to trial and, if found guilty, to have hanged like the vilest murderers that ever raised their hands against the lives of their fellow men.

The people were roused at last, and with majorities which swept the country like whirlwinds they returned men to Congress who were pledged to pull up this shameless iniquity by the very roots. And, to a certain extent, they did their duty faithfully and fearlessly. A law was introduced and enacted over the President's veto, by which the Southern satraps of the White House despot where unceremoniously flung aside in their places military Governors were appointed over certain districts of the conquered territory, whose first duty was to disfranchise all willful and persistent rebels and to register, without regard to color, all loyal citizens who would be entitled to vote under the new Constitution.

To defeat this plan of equal handed justice legal obstruction was called in by the President, and an interpretation forced on the Reconstruction Law, which would have defeated, as it was intended to defeat its entire object.

Again Congress came to the rescue. A summer session was held last July, at which a supplementary Reconstruction Act was passed, as before, over the President's veto, preventing, apparently in the most stringent manner his evil interference with the execution of the law which, to a great extent, was entrusted to the General of the army.

But scarcely had the national legislators returned to their homes when the old iniquitous interference to prevent the execution of the law was resumed, and in a manner more outrageously offensive than ever! This bad man knew well that so long as men of genuine loyalty and thorough capacity, were at the head of affairs in the South his schemes to defeat the law would be nipped in the bud. Therefore, such men must be removed. A chink was at once found in the armor of the last legal enactment: a lever was introduced, and the work of removal, against all remonstrance, was at once proceeded with.

The first victim is the bravest soldier, and, perhaps, the ablest politician, too in the country, the gallant General SHERIDAN. In the face of the victorious hosts of Jubal Early, the successor of Stonewall Jackson PHIL. SHERIDAN did what few men ever did before, or will do hereafter—turned, by his individual presence and courage, two huge legions of conquering invaders into broken and bleeding masses of hunted fugitives—changing a fatal defeat into a glorious victory. He it was, who, at the head of his magnificent cavalry, swooped like an eagle around the armies of Lee, and compelled their complete surrender. In fact, he did more in war to serve and save his country than any other living man. And since a universal peace was proclaimed, although placed in the most trying circumstances, has he not proved true as steel? Bent to restrain the treasonous rabble of Louisiana and Texas, has he not, while shielding one drop of blood, maintained the honor and interest of the Republic, and administered Imperial justice to men of opposite parties and of every colors?

But he committed a mortal offence. As an independent man, he loved his country, and lived and labored to save her. He should not be Andy Johnson's tool, and when he sang up those pro-treasonously addressed to him, calling the managers of loyal assemblies by pardoned rebels at New Orleans, he fearlessly declared that the Fifth Ward's favorites had planned the massacre and were guilty of murder. For this, he is—to be forgiven. For this he has now been—[illegible]. Old Sheridan, who fought bravely for the Union, and lost a limb at Winchester, for defending it has also felt the sting of the Executive ban. And "by my body, by the [illegible] Sheridan, the Fifth Ward's favorite, has also felt the sting of removal. The Fifth Ward's body has the heart—and the Fifth Ward's heart is beating on his pious breast for the King Country [illegible] tion, and whenever such a Man will be lost [illegible] in the plan—and pledged to carry it out."

We earnestly hope it is not yet too late for the representatives of the people to do their duty. That duty is to [illegible] Andrew Johnson from the high office he has shamed and disgraced. A man who dares to defy the will of the [illegible] of America ought not for an hour to keep his foot over a free people.

As adopted citizens of the Republic, the man of Irish birth [illegible] have as much, if not a more than any other people in this great country. We are the children of Irish parents, which [illegible] than any other people in this great country. We are the universal Irish race, of which [illegible] to be, we trust, the [illegible] and who are heart and soul loyal to a United [illegible] ever on friendly [illegible] And we have and labor for the [illegible] of our own [illegible] which [illegible] to the hand of [illegible] shall have [illegible] forever from the face of this [illegible] and united and [illegible] in his native [illegible] the victorious vanguard of the [illegible] of the earth.

THE LESSONS OF LAW.—The Boston [illegible] has the following:

At the present time of the [illegible] this country, we have [illegible] and interesting [illegible] and the people [illegible] of the present [illegible] law and for instance. No sane man [illegible] ex Governor Curtin [illegible] red by the Civil Rights Law; or [illegible] Lansing Stout of Oregon [illegible] manner for the [illegible] over State courts; or Hon. [illegible] ing the rights of the [illegible] yet all these [illegible] at this Court, and [illegible] effort is to prove what they do not [illegible] here, or [illegible] nor [illegible].

Senator Sumner [illegible] Clay Breckinridge wrote to Henry [illegible] New York, [illegible]

Mr Dear Sir: [illegible] of the Rebellion. Should I ever [illegible] policy of [illegible] proposal into mind [illegible] the cause of national [illegible] odor as that you [illegible]

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV 7 1867

Converted to Sense and R --on

Ten years Roger A Pryor was one of the most violent of the Southern bull es who played fantastic tricks upon the floor of Congress He belonged to the ring which thought that the progress of great moral ideas could be arrested by bluster, by intimidation, by pistol, by bludgeon Men who were troubled with such a thing as conscience were not to be allowed to think, much less to speak against the cherished doctrines of the slave propaganda. In the south they were silenced by the fear of the halter in the North they were kept down by threats of dissolving the Union, in Congress they were continually bullied by duellists or beaten with ruffianly violence when they had no chance for self defence Pryor was one of those who were most prominently engaged in this work so congenial to the chivalry, and his adventures with Potter, of Wisconsin, in which the Virginian was made to eat the leek as hastily as the braggart Pistol did, is still freshly remembered But Pryor has come round at last to a more sensible way of thinking. The drubbing he has got has done him good He talks now quite like a rational being, and the fustian and rhodomontade of former years find no place in his speech About a month ago, being in New York, he wrote a letter to the Richmond Whig, giving his views on the political situation. He says he has taken no part in politics since the close of the war, but that in private he has urged upon his friends such considerations as these

That the people is in no sense responsible for the calamities we endure, that toward us he has ever conducted himself with kindness and subordination, that he is entitled to our compassion to the sacrifice of our superior intelligence in the effort to attain a higher state of moral and intellectual development, to assume that he was placed on this theater as a reproach to humanity and a stumbling block in the progress of civilization would be to impeach the wisdom and goodness of Providence, that, considering the comparative numbers of the two races in the South it would be the merest madness to provoke a collision of caste, in a word, that it be said it by essential to the pa e repose an prosperity of the South that the emancipated class should be unshackled in the enjoyment of their rights under the law, and should be enlightened to understand the duties and limitations of the order and well being

This reasonable conduct is something which certain of Mr. Pryor's political allies in the North would do well to imitate. Hear further how the gallant Virginian talks

Leaving to others the ostensible part in the work of [illegible] and [illegible]ding aside wholly from all political [illegible] and activity, I have hoped in some measure and in a quiet way to repair the evil I contributed to bring upon the South, by availing myself of every appropriate private opportunity to suggest these counsels of [illegible] and magnanimity. [illegible] precipitated us into [illegible] must look back into the path of [illegible] and prosperity.

That is what we call a fair acknowledgement of error, an open confession of wrong doing. That is the style of conduct which inspires respect. Pryor, without a doubt, has raised himself by this frank [illegible] ation to a higher plane in the estimation of the Northern people than he ever occupied. Again he says:

I never look abroad upon our wasted fields and desolate [illegible] I never contemplate the all embracing ruin in which we are involved, the end [illegible] of our liberties and the [illegible] aspect of the future, without inwardly [illegible] ing to dedicate all I [illegible] of ability for the [illegible] to the task of averting [illegible] such ruins [illegible] by, next to that end of cultivating a spirit of forbearance and good feeling among all [illegible] and all sections of [illegible]

When we find a man with a history like that of Pryor, living in this way, we may realize the good which has been wrought by the war. That class of men have [illegible] that the tactics of ten years ago are not practicably the thing. It has required a change to set them to talking of cultivating a spirit of forbearance towards all [illegible] of the country. It is gratifying to wit[illegible] such conversions. Pryor closes his letter thus:

With the [illegible] of conviction, I believe that by a [illegible] in conformity with these suggestions the [illegible] a people may achieve a prosperity and [illegible] they ever enjoyed; while, on the [illegible] course of [illegible] that by a vain and [illegible] order of things they cannot [illegible] to [illegible] they cannot escape, they will [illegible] the [illegible] of their present condition, and [illegible] bring down upon the [illegible] calamities [illegible]

Men in a mass who seem to be thoroughly contrite [illegible] and reform. It is true his opinions are [illegible] matters of little importance; but they [illegible] that [illegible] discipline, few persons are wholly incorrigible.

GOOD FARMING WILL PAY.—The valleys of Oregon are noted for the great natural richness of [illegible] no system of [illegible] can supply the [illegible] of good cultivation. There are comparatively few [illegible] who recognize the importance of [illegible] and trench ploughing, and of a thorough [illegible] of the soil. Good implements are the first necessity. In especial, no farmer can afford to use any other than the best kind of plows. The magic of good farming is to plow deep,—it is impossible to get too deep,—and never to sow a field without thoroughly pulverizing the soil The [illegible] the soil is pulverized the more effectually [illegible] at the drouth, and the better does it [illegible] Many farmers sow too [illegible] of land and expend too little labor [illegible] with the crops. It is safe to say that [illegible] of the [illegible] would in [illegible] the yield per acre of wheat in Oregon by an [illegible] of at least one third. Every year a large [illegible] of grain is sown upon stubble land, though [illegible] know perfectly well that a good yield cannot be expected from it. This is the sort of labor that does not pay, but good farming has never yet failed to pay in Oregon, and never will RAILROAD WANTED.—The Walla Walla States man has an article urging the need of a railroad to connect that place with the Columbia river The distance to be traversed by a railroad would not exceed thirty miles, and there are no obstacles in the way which it would be at all difficult to surmount. The Statesman thinks the who's expense of the work would be little more than "the cost of the iron, the ties, and the labor of putting down the rails," and that "the enhanced price of produce in Walla Walla valley for a single season would pay the whole cost of [illegible] most people contemplate the entire cost of the work, exclusive of stocking the road, at not more than $500,000 It now costs eight dollars per ton to haul grain from Walla Walla to Wallula, and teamsters can make nothing at this figure, yet with grain at its present price, this tariff "amounts to almost prohibition" The Statesman believes the idea of building the road to be a practical one, and thinks that the people of that section have resources enough to build it, though it is recommended that measures be taken to engage eastern capital in the enterprise.

MASSACHUSETTS.—In Massachusetts, says the Tribune, the Republicans have resolved to prosecute the canvass independent of the license question. They may do it, but the liquor men will not. They have a secret organization which pervades the entire State, they boast that it has 80,000 members, they will nominate a State ticket composed mainly of Republicans, the Democrats will give it their every vote, it will be beaten by some 10,000 to 20,000 majority, and then the sham Democracy will everywhere throw up their caps and fire their guns over what they will term a "Great Democratic Reaction" in the old Bay State

A large meeting was held at Walla Walla on the 30th ult. to consider the question of annexing North Idaho to Washington Territory Several leading citizens addressed the meeting in favor of the project, and a committee was appointed to draft a memorial to be presented to Congress, asking that the proposed annexation be consummated. The "Pan Handle" of Idaho ought properly to belong to Washington, and if the matter is rightly presented there would seem to be no reason why the petition of the people of both Territories who are most interested in it, should not be granted.

A PARALLEL CASE.—The Marysville (Cal) Appeal of a late date says

The Copperheads of this city have started a petition for the repeal of our city charter They have not been able to elect a single city officer for many years, and have consequently pronounced our government a nuisance When they had control they ran the city in debt several hundred thousand dollars, and now, when called up on to pay the interest on their own debts they denounce the government as extravagant and go for repeal The present administration is getting the city out of debt, and if the people sustain the Union party the heavy Democratic debt will be paid off in a few years, and our taxes will then be very light under the present charter We pay now about $3 on the hundred dollars valuation, and only seventy cents for current expenses Repealing the city charter won't pay the city indebtedness, nor reduce our city taxes one cent Those who pay many cent are loudest for repeal

This reminds us of the action of the Copperhead leaders in this city After having plunged the city in debt to the extent of thousands of dollars, they were kicked out of office by the people, and the Union party was intrusted with the administration Under the management of Union men the city was redeemed from debt, though the tax as had to be temporarily increased to accomplish that object Then the Democrats began to cry "retrenchment," censured their opponents for the high taxes which were caused in great part by the extravagance of former Democratic administrations, and by these misrepresentations succeeded in obtaining a small majority in the city Then instead of the "retrenchment" they had promised, every expenditure which they had been denouncing was continued, and more added in order to furnish spoils for hungry partisans

The Chicago Tribune closes an article on the Democratic party and negro suffrage as follows "Take the blacks as voters. Where they have been tested, have they acted differently from what intelligent white men would have done under the same circumstances? Have they done more than express their sentiments by the ballot, as they had a right to do, peaceably, consistently, firmly? Has anything they have yet done, in the exercise of suffrage, been what could be carried at if done by white men? Where is their fault? Only this—they will not vote the Democratic ticket This is the whole secret of Democratic opposition to their enfranchisement"

"We would like to see the day," says the Evening Journal of Chicago, "when Senators of the United States will no more tolerate a drunken man in their chambers than they would a viper in their beds." We echo this wish.

Dispatches from Des Moines, Iowa, of the 11th October, state that the Republican majority in that State will be 27,000 at the very lowest.

A SUGGESTION FOR THROAT DISEASES.—"My communication with the world is very much enlarged by the Lozenge, which I now carry always in my pocket; that trouble in my throat (for which the 'Troches' are a specific) having made me often a mere whisperer." M F WILLIS

For a Cough, Cold an Irritation or Sore in the Throat, "Brown Bronchial Troches" will often give instant relief.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practiced, that owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in its eradicating disease from the eyes.

He emigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMATION, &c, of FIVE SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing Had been treated by several physicians during all that time without effect

Mrs MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years For one year they were so bad that she could not work Was finally completely cured by the Opthalmic Panacea.

E B MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years

NATHAN DILL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years

ROBERT HAMPSEY and W H PORTER, of Harrisburg JOHN M HALLOWAY, of Linn County, G H WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Opthalmic Panacea

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg

BUSINESS AT LAFAYETTE.—The Columbian Press makes the following remarks in its financial and commercial report of Nov 1st: "During October business has been better than average in fact it was good, but for November we do not anticipate a very brisk trade. The season is very near its close, as far as the upper country is concerned, and we must rely now upon the counties around us for support. Happily, we do not have to depend entirely on the mines for a market, having Grand Ronde and Powder River Valleys as well as the settlers and miners of Eagle creek, Granite creek, Olive creek, Morgan Basin and adjacent camps to supply. Nor is this trade by any means inconsiderable but is not observed as much on account of the bills generally sold there being small, but very often duplicated.

The freight which left San Francisco on the Oriflamme has not all come up yet, and as the Sierra Nevada ought also to have reached Portland by this time we may expect a considerable freight yet. Although the bulk of freight is gone, the orders which have generally to be filled before the close of the season amount very often to a considerable.

The rates at which freight is now shipped is 8 cents to Idaho City 6 cents to Auburn and Granite 10 cents to Owyhee, Boise City 12½ cents to Auburn 2½ cents to Unionto wn and La Grande.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Sierra Nevada carried away the following list of passengers for San Francisco:

Col R N Scott, Maj J T Hunt, W N Hawley, J M French, Jno Moore, S H Stewart, James Currie, Jos Currie, John Currie, L M Philbrook, Robt Marshall, F McManus, F McQuade, I King, Mrs J H Haas and child, Miss S Clinton, J Witt, J H Hoagen, Paul Sinsto and wife, F Hagens, H M Hutchinson, J H Underwood and wife and child, T E Jessell, A Benedict, H S Mosley, R Racey, M A Graham, J H Price, Jacob Koran, J Kaufman, G R Fox, R, E Barry, M Devine, L Bedwell, James Jamble, Miss J E Lane, J Schiller, J D Cook, E J Coffrath, John Starr, Jos Kerr, Wm Reynolds, F Hogan, Robt Barnett, Wm Delaney, H Colt, C E Watkins, Rev G Haas, J H Baker, W W Miller, B S Miller, Mrs W S Baker, S P Keeney, S Donaldson, M S Carr and wife, O Walker and wife, Miss Lizzie J Ferrell, W Combs, H H Snyder, J Hischman, H Hendersen wife and child, Wm Moore, wife and child, Mrs M Rosenbaum and 2 children, S Lemon and wife, M G Connell, J Johnson, Miss M McCourt, O Hankens, Mrs H Mendes, Mrs E J Hogden and daughter, Hong Wa, W L Parker and wife, Mrs Mohler, H B Brainard, Mrs Fairman, Mrs O Gonzales, J K Kittrell, H A Bigelford (W F & Co's mess) and 21 in the steerage.

TAXES TO BE COLLECTED.—Sheriff Stitzel commences to-day to swing round the circle of precincts for the purpose of collecting the taxes for this year. He will be at the usual place of voting in each precinct in the following order: Sauvie's Island Thursday, November 7th; St Johns, Friday November 8th; Powell's Valley, Saturday November 9th; Sandy, Monday, November 11th; Willamette Tuesday, November 12th; Multnomah Wednesday, November 13th; East Portland, Thursday, November 14th; Fulton, Friday, November 15th; North Portland, Saturday, November 16th; Central Portland Monday, November 18th; South Portland Hayden's building, Tuesday, November 19th.

Under the provision of the law now in force, relating to the collection of taxes, all taxes are required to be paid on or before the first day of April of each year. If not paid by that time all real estate with taxes not paid thereon will be immediately sold for taxes, and at the expense of the owner thereof and personal property will be levied upon immediately after the expiration of 30 days from the time of the Sheriff's visit to the Precincts for the purpose of collecting taxes.

On Friday Campbell went around, collected all the bills due, and on Saturday went to the Bashlon Stable, got a buggy and started as he said to see a friend at Oswego. Somewhere on the road he met another person with whom he had been roaming, and sent the buggy by him back to town he himself going on. Since he has not been heard from. He managed to bilk Mr. De Lashmutt out of about $60. Campbell is about 25 years old 5 feet 11 inches high, black hair, grey eyes square shoulders and weight about 170 pounds. HUMANITY TO HORSES.—Messrs Bills & Co are having made at the shop of J W Cook, several water proof covers for their dray horses, to protect them from the inclement weather of the rainy season. The covers are made of heavy cotton ducking to fit the horse with the harness on. If we were a driver with ordinary good horse sense, we should certainly select Bills & Co subjects to pull in; we should like the humane thought which suggested those water-proof covers.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In the Recorder's Court yesterday, Philip Wyman, on a charge of assault and battery upon A Bergman, was tried, found guilty and fined $10 and costs. Frank Brown, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 and costs. The case of Henry Fleckenstine, charged with an assault with a dangerous weapon, upon James McKay, was continued till 10 o'clock this morning.

A HEAVY SAFE.—One of Bills & Co's drays, yesterday took from Abernethy's wharf a tremendous big safe which arrived by the Live Yankee, and hauled it down to the P T Co's wharf. It weighs about six tons is nearly eight feet high and of proportionate size otherwise. We were told that it is for the State Department at Salem.

THE STEAMER.—The steamship Sierra Nevada succeeded in getting out of the Willamette river without detention on Tuesday. She anchored in the Columbia and took on about 400 tons of freight from the Cascade and Flavius Trump, and weighed anchor yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, and steamed down the river.

ARRESTS.—The following arrests were made yesterday: Thomas Ward, colored, for an assault and battery upon another colored man named Ellenburg. Ward gave bail for his appearance this morning. E Dan on and Chambers, assault and battery upon Henry Fleckenstine. The charges will be heard this morning.

PENIAN BALL.—We learn that at a meeting of the Fenian Guard last evening it was decided to give a Ball at Oro Fino Hall on the evening of Thanksgiving day.

GERMAN BROS offer to the public at San Francisco prices a large invoice of Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas.

GOOD FOR OREGON.—Another source of revenue to the State has been created. We notice several shipments of Henley's Royal Balsam to California, and as soon as the bottles can be manufactured a large order will be filled from New York. The curative properties of this medicine are appreciated abroad as well as at home. See the certificates of several prominent citizens of the State on fourth page.

DR. C. W. COOL
Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.
Those who desire FIRST CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED PLATE, which, by the nature of his improvement consists in fusing the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third finer than either than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate and from tainting it, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.
Price for upper teeth, $60; full set, upper and lower, $75 00. oc31dtf

The New York Ladies and Brigham Young, Jr.

The Salt Lake Vedette reproduces from the Cincinnati Commercial, the following indignant protest from the pen of Mrs. Williamson, (formerly Miss Sarah R. Carmichael, the Utah poetess,) in behalf of the women in Utah, and in reply to a communication laudatory of Brigham Young, Jr., and his wife, who had recently been on a visit to New York. She speaks with a woman's feeling, and with a knowledge of what she says, having resided seventeen years in the Mormon dominions:

As an American woman, an earnest "student of the social problem of woman's mission," and one whose acquaintance with the "phenomenon of Mormonism" is not limited to an hour's conversation with Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Young, Jr., I beg permission to reply to the "New York ladies," represented by the nom de plume of "Faustine."

If I could feel and speak with the enthusiasm left with the shreds of my youth, wasted on the desert of seventeen years in Utah, or could I speak as I now feel, of the measureless insult to woman and disgrace to man that has been tolerated so long in the bosom of our too lenient land, I might, perhaps, say something to "Faustine" and the "ladies" that would, at least, make them less eager to disclose "the pleasure" they might feel in "calling upon the polygamist son of the arch-polygamist who prostitutes their sex and brutalizes his own in Utah. "Come" I plead before them and the world the hideous portraiture of Mormon life as it is, open to their view the unholy temple of Brigham Young's self-idolatry, and uncover to their sight its polluted altars, reeking with blood and tears, they might possibly sense the shame of simply visiting, in the name of American women, "a society of women degradation."

I cannot regard it as possible for respectable [illegible] and ladies "who had attained the literary altitude"—to publicly approve, or attempt to excuse anything so base as that which even the humblest and least intellectual of true women [illegible]. The statements quoted in favor of the peculiar institution, though neither original, witty, nor true, are so far above the capacity of the lady made responsible for them—Mrs. B. Y. Jr.,—as to attain an "altitude not a half-breadth below that occupied by Faustine, whose peculiar bias of sentiment and mode of reasoning are full up to the most advanced style of Mormon pulpit oratory. Mrs. B. Y. Jr. is made to go through the old farce of [illegible] polygamy with prostitution—between whom two it am not sufficiently taught in the morphology of its relation to discover where a line of distinction could be drawn the least shade favoring to either, and the fact that Mrs. B. Y. Jr., with "Miss Tine" and the "New York ladies" were forced to the necessity of such a [illegible] only enables the world to discover the [illegible] altitude from which they [illegible] "advanced" ideas and white [illegible] revelation to [illegible] most complete and unmistakable revelation of character as the one to which I reply. The [illegible] of prostitution does not justify polygamy any more than the occurrence of murder does "blood atonement" of Mormon practice. The fact [illegible] which [illegible] through, by those destitute of moral principles, the [illegible] to give why they [illegible] be removed altogether. Why do not the slaveholders of this many "souls-without-a-single-thought" compare their pet institution with true marriage, instead of forever [illegible] the dregs of the palliation for [illegible] revolting enough to act as a foil to its [illegible].

Mrs. Brigham Young, Jr., is the only woman for A[illegible] husband has ever exercised [illegible] section, though he has thought [illegible] to [illegible] others, and the [illegible] tion that she can [illegible] to laugh gaily while giving a [illegible] Utah, if [illegible] more certainly than her lack of [illegible] life's purity and truth, that [illegible] liable.

[illegible] Chinese said, speaking of a Delegate to Congress from Utah, "Can you tell me, sir, how a woman can give her wife away for the sixteenth portion of a man?" The Delegate replied, he supposed for that [illegible] religion did in Mohammedanism. It was part of her religion. This is no matter, sir," said the grand old man, turning away with that cold loftiness of manner so familiar to him, "American women are [illegible] have wives." No stern rebuke was [illegible] uttered [illegible] a beetle [illegible] American [illegible] and [illegible] public [illegible] might [illegible] destiny [illegible] upon their [illegible] from the [illegible] the few [illegible] of Brigham [illegible] beyond [illegible] ling, I could find it easy to [illegible] the anti-Christ of the Mormon system. But if I were a man, and an American woman dared to appeal to [illegible] fellowship, like the great [illegible] Webster, I would [illegible] hole in the floor [illegible] with my foot, and buried the female [illegible] dition. Even if [illegible] it with its [illegible] slavery, dead or alive, though I gave my life and dearer lives than mine to bolt [illegible].

As I am only a woman I lift a woman's weak voice or prayerful appeal to every State in our Union of [illegible], and ask that each will exact from its representative in Congress one blow for American woman in Utah—for the honor of all American women to prove the chivalrous devotion of [illegible] to the motto, thirty-one wives they hold [illegible].

I [illegible] American women everywhere, and call [illegible] I have [illegible] reverence for the wives [illegible] but they bear, to strengthen my appeal with [illegible] more dearer than [illegible] to the royal hearts that love them. I appeal [illegible] to the Rib, who, for the Eve [illegible] to [illegible] away with the monster, Polygamy.

The best way to attack it is every way. Fence it [illegible] with opposition. I do not believe in a [illegible] warfare, nor a parley of war-powers. Let no polygamist have the name or right of an [illegible] with a pauper's in Congress, [illegible] ception right to soil, right to vote, or hold [illegible] the United States Government. Hon. Schuyler Colfax—one of God's best workmen will, speaking on the subject, "No man should be allowed to hold office under a government whose law he violates. The Homestead law should only be open to the [illegible] who obey all the laws of the Republic." The knightly Howard and [illegible] Wade have each made a worthy effort to call the attention of Congress to the subject. [illegible] Sumner's bill is, perhaps, the best ever devised as a remedy for Mormon offenses. As [illegible], nothing has been stated toward [illegible] remedies, and the gratifying evil remains unchecked. The Mormon Church representation is allowed a place in the House while the full [illegible] and law abiding citizens of the Territory petition in vain for help to enforce the laws in Utah.

Hoping that Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Young, Jr., together with "Faustine," and the "New York ladies," may live to see the anti-polygamy law [illegible]. I conclude with a bold and manly opinion from the official report of General Ruskin, who visited Utah last summer.

Wherever the flag floats, we are entitled to the [illegible] of speech, and of the press, and neither will it here now. "If the United States Government cannot guarantee them, in spite of a hundred thousand Polygamous, disloyal mormons, then it time to me it had better abdicate and make room for some other purer Christian Government that can and will."

FROM SIMCOE.—The Record has the following:

Missing Rev. J. H. Wilbur in town, on Saturday, we obtained some information relative to the Indians on the Simcoe Reservation, of which he is the Agent. He reports the Indians making decided progress. They have 1800 acres of land plowed and cultivated; raised 20,000 bushels of wheat this year, which is more than they can use, and will leave them a surplus. Besides this, they raised plenty of corn and vegetables. The schools are prosperous. Over a hundred Indians can read and write. He is willing to put some of his scholars against a neighboring number of the Territorial Legislature, on some common branches. During the Summer the Indians have built two [illegible] log houses for their own use, worth $1,000 each. They are handsome houses, constructed almost entirely by their own labor. Mr. Wilbur is proving that the charge of Indians are capable of progress.

RED AND WHITE.—The Shasta Courier advocates an Indian Reservation for the red skinned vagabonds of the northeastern part of this State; not so much for the safety of the white settlers as for the reformation of the master race, "who will insist on associating with the savages on terms of equality until prohibited from doing so by official surveillance." That is certainly hard on the master race, says the Alta: if they are not allowed to choose their own associations, we have fallen on evil days. Does our cotemporary call this a free country, and would he be willing to debar white people the privilege of that glorious institution—"A white man's Government?"

SHERMAN AND JOHNSON.—The Chicago Tribune has the following article:

The President has called Lieutenant-General Sherman to Washington with a view of ascertaining his political sentiments, and possibly to make him Secretary of War. The President removed Stanton some months ago, that removal to, by law, conditioned upon its approval by the senate. The appointment of General Grant, or General Sherman, or of any other person, must be temporary in its character until the senate shall have passed upon the Stanton case. The idea of removing Grant and appointing Sherman is a strange one. Ironical Sherman is an officer of the army who could not accept the office of secretary except ad interim, without resigning his office as Lieutenant General. As we have seen the appointment is only temporary, and should the Senate disapprove of Stanton's removal, as it will do, the appointment would terminate then. The President by this time is fully aware that General Grant is not to be moved by Executive blandishments or bullying from the strict line of duty marked out by the law. It is possible that Andrew Johnson, in his madness, contemplates a coup d'etat, and that, failing to secure Grant, he has fought the Lieutenant-General, with a view of having the second officer of the army to support him in the hour of trouble. Why General Sherman should be offered the paltry and temporary dot notion of American Secretary of War for two months can only be reconciled upon the assumption that there is something deeper in the matter than has yet appeared. The President is hemmed, in on all sides. Within sixty or seventy days Stanton will be restored to the Cabinet. If the President contemplates action to defeat Congress, he must do something before that time. But Grant is not only at the head of the army, but in possession of the War Department, and opposed to all revolutionary proceedings. A Secretary of War of the right stripe is essential. Sherman would be just the man, if he would stoop to sully his name with eternal infamy. It now appears that General Sherman's politics do not suit the President. He is in favor of speedy reconstruction and for the enforcement and execution of the laws of Congress. Sherman, therefore, is discarded, and the President must look elsewhere. In the meantime the sands of life are running rapidly. The day for the meeting of Congress hastens onward.

THE LATE BLAST ON THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Virginia (Nev.) Treepeer says:

We learn from a gentleman just from across the Sierras, via Donner Lake, that quite a serious accident occurred on the grade, coming to Donner Lake from the Summit, by which a driver of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Fast Freight, Jos Clough, was quite seriously injured. The Railroad Company have specified hours daily for blasting; and as Clough was coming down the grade, he was notified that he had 25 minutes to pass a certain piece of road exposed to the flying stones from the blast. He went along; but in about 10 minutes the blasts commenced, and pieces of rock fell in showers over the road. A piece struck Clough on the forehead and face, knocking him from his seat; simultaneously, another piece hit one of the pole horses, bringing it to the ground, when the balance of the team—five horses—started to run. A lady on the wagon got off and was not injured. The team ran down the grade at a spanking pace, and when near Mac's new station were brought up by coming in contact with a heavy team. But one of the horses was much injured, and Clough, though considerably hurt, will soon be all right again. The escape from serious injury was miraculous; and it is wonderful that other persons have not been injured from the same cause, this summer. The work of blasting, where stones can reach the road, has been completed, the last blast being sent off yesterday.

A 500-POUND SHOT.—The following from the New York Tribune is what we call a pretty heavy shot between wind and water:

In the frenzy of their joy at the election news from California, the Democrats fired off yesterday in the City Hall Park some of the guns they omitted to fire at Fort Sumter.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

☞ Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon:

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. WYTHE—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been afflicted with a severe cough for several weeks, which had resisted the power of medicine, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief we got [illegible] of the Royal Balsam, in her present condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Wandell, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other [illegible] failing, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles. Strangely enough, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked. Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effected; hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted. It is astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if Balsams were it once, they never be without it in the house.
Vancouver, March 1, 1865. H. COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved the considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and God send to mankind.
Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Superintendents for sale, but Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.
BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which I did; several afflicted with the same disease, has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week, and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.
Yamhill County.
Yours truly,
W. F. BARBER

From J. H. Morrill.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last three years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time, I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody, my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.
I remain yours, truly,

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!
THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Read the Certificates!

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wegner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. H. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for a long time. I found it one bottle of FIVE MINUTES from its application and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swollen I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gums and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and took the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.
I MITCHELL

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one only it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. DORE COMIN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.
